THE GREELET MEETING .- The meeting in the in behalf of the Greeley Democracy, took place according to announcement, on Tuesday evening. The room was hardly half filled, and nearly half of those present were Republicans. Mr. Perrin's speech was simply a rehash, made up of the charges and arguments prepared, ready cut and dry, by the leaders of the party—charges that have been exploded, and many of them not true in fact. As the speaker took occasion to let his hearers know that he had long been a leader 12:30 p m | dry, by the leaders of the party-charges that hearers know that he had long been a leader hearers know that he had long been a leader among the Democracy, he seemed to feel that it was necessary to explain the sudden conversion of his party from the heathenism and darkness of modern democracy, unto the marvellous light of Republicanism as reflected by Greeley. The reasons assumed for selling out the principles of the party were of the same stereotyped class given by all these bread and butter patriots. The devil himself was ready to give a reason for rebelling against high heaven, and Mr. Perrin thought he could do quite as much in this wholesale transfer of principles and party. The speaker was extremely anxious to make the audience believe that the Democrats had done even more to carry on the war and suppress the rebellion among the Democracy, he seemed to feel that it Trains leave for New York, via Hazleton at ker was extremely anxious to make the audience to carry on the war and suppress the rebellion than the Republicans.
